By Matias Cardiel, LACDMH Rio Hondo Wellness Center

In a few hours, this empty room will be full. In a few hours, this quiet room will come to life with the laughter and joy that it has come to know during this time of year. In a few hours, this room will be witness to another year of consumers and their family members enjoying a festive meal.

As this empty room patiently waits to come alive, staff and volunteers are hard at work behind the scenes to ensure that this year's Thanksgiving celebration is a big success.

In a few hours, many wonderful memories will be created for consumers, family members, volunteers and staff alike. In a few hours, Rio Hondo will host its traditional Thanksgiving celebration.

Over 100 consumers and family members enjoyed themselves, a few hours ago.

Happy Thanksgiving from the Rio Hondo Family!
